

To the best of my knowledge what is going on at Sinclair is and should be illegal. It amounts to nothing more than a propaganda hatchet job on Kerry. Sinclair has shown before how impartial and professional they are.

If anyone at the FCC can still blow their nose without asking Bush and Powell's permission, maybe you can all do your job and shut this down now. Otherwise it will be crystal clear to the future and the world what type of agency the FCC is since Bush took office.
